TENNESSEE MINERS

TAKE CHARGE OF THE TELEGRAPH WIRES IN KNOXVILLE

Bardsley's Partner in Philadelphia to be Civilly Prosecuted—The Agitation Against Convict Labor Spreading Throughout Arkansas, Etc., Etc.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 21.—At Coal Creek, since Sunday night until this morning, the telegraph wires have been in the hands of the miners, and nothing has been sent out except such matter as they allowed the operator to send. This morning there are rumors that a large military force is coming to reinstate the convicts, but no one knows the truth. There is a great hatred of Governor Buchanan, and threats are openly made. It will not do for him to return here. Special telegrams from Coal Creek and Bruceville, have to be sent by train to Knoxville, as the miners will not permit news, detrimental to them, to be sent.

It is reported that Governor Buchanan has called on the governor of Georgia for two companies of infantry and two of artillery with Gatling guns.

The Philadelphia Scandal.

PHILADELPHIA, July 22.—The general expectation that some decided action will be taken by the state officials in reference to the disclosures made by the experts authorized by Mayor Stuart to investigate Bardsley's accounts, involving the state treasury office and Auditor-General McComant's official connection with the Bardsley fraud is not likely to be disappointed. Governor Pattison has referred the report of the experts to the Attorney-General to take civil action to recover the stolen state funds and prosecute those who have in any way made themselves amenable to the criminal laws of the state. There is every reason to expect that information will be laid and that the arrest and vigorous prosecution of prominent state officers will follow.

Convict Labor Denounced.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 22.—News of the convict troubles in Tennessee has strengthened the antagonistic feeling here, and was followed by a general uprising of all the labor organizations in this city. A mass meeting was held, at which the penitentiary lessee system was denounced, and resolutions were adoted demanding that the contracts recently let by the state to the penitentiary lessees, including the building of the state insane asylum, be immediately annulled. A large number participated in the meeting, and threats are made that Winchesters will be used to prevent the convicts being worked in opposition to free labor. Other meetings are announced and considerable uneasiness is felt.

Blaine Resuming Work.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—It is learned through reliable sources that Secretaty Blaine is gradually preparing to resume charge of the State Department affairs. He now has his private secretary with him and is getting together the loose ends of his work. It can hardly be said that he is actually at work yet and the most he will undertake for some time, and his health continues to improve, will be merely in an advisory capacity.

Chilian Insurgents Defeated.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The Chilian minister here received a dispatch from Chili this evening stating that a battle was fought a few days ago at Huasco between the insurgent troops and the vanguard of the first division of the government army, in which the insurgents were completely defeated. The insurgent cavalry fled leaving 200 dead, a great number of prisoners and all their arms.

Arrested in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 21.—Wm. J. Pope, the defaulting State Treasurer of Tennessee, was arrested in this city this morning. He will be held for a requisition by Tennessee authorities.

Peffer Seeking Nomination.

TOPEKA, Kansas, July 22.—The rumor that Senator Peffer was figuring for the nomination for President by the People's Party in 1892 was confirmed to-day.

BUCHANAN DETERMINED.

He Will Enforce the Law—Sending for Reinforcements of Militia.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 22.—Major R. H. Dugley, of Nashville, Tenn., is in this city fresh from the scene of the trouble between the miners and militia at Coal Creek. Major Dudley regards the situation as very serious and fears blood will be shed before it is over. "The Miners," he says, "number seven or eight hundred, and are resolute and determined men and well armed with shot guns and revolvers. The militia sent out to guard the convicts were at a great disadvantage," he said, "and the result of the campaign is not to be wondered at. They numbered only some 100 men and the position they occupied is where the stockade for the convicts was located, and they were exposed to the miners on the hills from all sides. Had they fired into the miners there is no doubt but they would all have been slaughtered. Under the condition, I think they acted wisely and gracefully in returning, and bringing off with them the convicts. Governor Buchanan is telegraphing all over the State for the militia to be pushed forward and is determined to enforce the law and protect the State in its right to work convicts in the mines. Public sentiment is against the policy of convicts competing with labor in the mines or anywhere else, and there is but little doubt that the law authorizing the working of convicts outside of the prison will be repealed as soon as the legislature meets.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 22.—The following special, probably exaggerated, will be published by the afternoon papers: "Four thousand well-armed miners at Brieeville and Coal Creek are waiting for the appearance of the militia, and a bloody battle will certainly occur if the troops go there. Advices from various points in Tennessee, Virginia and Kentucky indicate that the rioters can on short notice raise a force of ten thousand efficient men. On Monday night the rioters formed on Walders Ridge and prepared to roll down huge boulders on the soldiers should they approach. The telegraph wires are still intact, but it is hard to get a message sent from Coal Creek unless it is favorable to the strikers.

THOMAS A. EDISON.

The Latest Production of the Wizard—A Remarkable Instrument.

The name of Thomas Alva Edison is a household word throughout the whole civilized world, and the story of his life is familiar to all. But his inventive genius is so prolific that it is difficult to keep pace with it. The latest device of his is called the Kinetograph. It is an instrument that in combination with the phonograph enables the exact reproduction on a miniature scale at present of the movements of any speaker, singer or actor, the actual tone of the voice being heard. By its means the representation of any theatrical performance, meeting, scene, opera, horse race, etc., can be exhibited. It records and reproduces motion as the phonograph records and reproduces sound. It has already been exhibited in the presence of some 200 persons. In Edison's own words "you can sit in your parlor and look at a big screen and see Chauncey Depew come on the stage and bow and smile and take a drink of water and start off with his oration. Every time your eyes see him open his mouth your ears will hear what he says." The kinetograph is a photographic camera arranged on the principles of the zoetrope. The zoetrope, or wheel of life, is a card on which are represented the same figure, man or horse, as the case may be, in a number of slightly different positions. On the wheel revolving, the single figure or figures appear as one, making a perfectly natural movement. The revolution of the wheel is too quick for the eye to see each variation in the figure, and consequently a unit figure is the result. The interior of the camera has gelatine strips unrolled from one spindle and re-rolled on the other, which in passing are carried before the lens of the camera. It is so arranged that 40 perfect photographs are taken in the lightning time of one second. The result when reproduced is pure motion.

A Clock Made of Bread.

Milan has a curosity in a clock, which is made entirely of bread. The maker is a native of India, and he has devoted three years of his time to the construction of this curiosity. He was very poor, and, being without means to purchase the necessary metal, deprived himself regularly of his daily bread, which he devoted to the construction of his curiosity, eating the crust and saving the soft part for doing his work. He made use of a certain salt to solidify his material, and when the various pieces were dry they were perfectly hard and insoluble in water. The clock is of respectable size, and goes well. The case, which is also hardened with bread, displays great talent in design and execution.

THOMPSON IS TIRED.

THE MINISTER OF JUSTICE IS LIKELY TO RESIGN.

Martin Connolly Confirms Murphy's Evidence When his Memory Holds out—The Langevin Block Scandal Taken up—Charlebois' Pretty Percentages.

OTTAWA, July 22.—All kinds of rumors have been afloat last night and to-day, the principal one being that Sir John Thompson intends resigning from the Government and becoming the chief legal adviser of the Canadian Pacific at a salary of $20,000 per annum. Another is that he intends joining a legal firm in Toronto, where a guarantee of $25,000 annually will be given him. One thing is certain, he is disgusted with his party, and if he follows out his inclinations he will retire. No one knows what a day may bring forth.

At the Tarte committee yesterday some further damaging evidence was given in regard to Sir Hector, McGreevy and the Connollys by the latter's bookkeeper, Martin P. Connolly, who at the opening of the investigation was sent to Buffalo to be out of the way by the Connollys, and whom they afterwards recalled. In many cases his evidence corroborated Murphy, and in others he could not recall the facts, owing to his bad memory. Examined by Mr. Geoffrion, witness admitted about 20 entries of sums ranging from $67 to $800, made by the firm to Messrs. Germain, Brunnell and Pelletier, Harbor Commission Inspectors. These entries appeared with only the initials "G," "B," and "P," and these letters were sometimes written in telegraphic characters, which Mr. Geoffrion said was the Morse system. (Laughter). Witness admitted that payments were made to the inspectors to give false reports to the Harbor Commission. The system was one of percentage, the inspectors getting a proportion of what they cheated the Government out of. Witness said he destroyed receipts taken from the inspectors and made erasures in the books to destroy evidence that might incriminate the inspectors and the firm. The committee ordered him to go through the books and give a complete statement of all the erasures made. Connolly further stated that he had charged $5000 to the account of Three Rivers, because that sum was spent by the firm on Sir Hector Langevin's election in Three Rivers. To-day further evidence was given by Martin Connolly. He swore as to making erasures in the books, and that erasures were made by others besides him. Like the other Connolly, Martin has a bad memory.

The Public Accounts Committee yesterday took up the scandal in connection with the Langevin block, the new departmental building, for which Mr. Charlesbois was the contractor. John Fensom, the elevator manufacturer of Toronto, deposed that he tendered for the construction of the elevators in the building at the price of $32,000. Charlebois opposed the awarding of this contract to Fensom except on the condition that 25 per cent be given to him. Fensom then on Charlebois' advice raised his price to $40,000 getting the contract at that figure and giving the $8000 to Charlebois. Other sub-contractors were bled in the same fashion, and their are many facts yet to come out concerning the affair. Charlebois is another "confidential friend" and favorite of sir Hector.

THE "CONFIDENTIAL MAN."

Mr. Valin's Statements Regarding Langevin and McGreevy.

OTTAWA, July 17.—Before the Committee on Privileges and Elections to-day, P. V. Valin, a Conservative ex-M. P. and ex-chairman of the Harbor Commission of Quebec, said he spoke to Thomas McGreevy about the way he was shoving himself forward in the commission and McGreevy replied:

"I am Sir Hector Langevin's confidential man."

He (Valin) then spoke to Sir Hector himself and the minister told him to "follow McGreevy and everything would be all right. You know we are frequently together and consult together."

After that the witness said he always considered that McGreevy spoke for Sir Hector in 1887. The witness asked McGreevy if Larkin and Connolly had subscribed for elections and McGreevy answered that they had been very generous, they were good fellows, they ought to be taken care of, they had subscribed largely, and that Sir Hector was all pleased with them.

In dealing with this firm the harbor commission always treated with Murphy as the representative of the men. During the elections of 1886 Murphy sent him a political subscription. He did not know how much. He took part in the federal elections of 1887, and he was the Conservative candidate for Montmorency and asked for money. McGreevy gave him money three different times, about $500 each time. His election agent at the last moment told him that unless they had more money his election was in danger. He therefore applied again to McGreevy and Murphy. Murphy told him he had left in McGreevy's hands all that was needed.

He then saw McGreevy, who claimed that the election in Quebec county, where Sir Adolphe Caron was running, cost so much: all the ministers cost so much that there was no money left. Caron, he said, was always after him, and he had not enough to supply him, and added, "we have Sir Hector at Three Rivers, too." The witness also spoke to Sir Hector about the money, and the minister said he had seen McGreevy that morning, and advised the witness to go and see him, as he was in charge of the money at the elections in March last. Witness swore he received a subscription from Larkin, Connolly & Co., through Michael Connolly. On one occasion Sir Hector Langevin told him that if the Harbor commission did not act properly he would dissolve it. Witness received $1600 a year salary as chairman, but paid out about $15,000 for election expenses.

Uncle Thomas' Steamship Subsidy.

OTTAWA, July 21.—Before the Privileges and Elections Committee, Julien Chabot, manager of the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company, said he was authorized by the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company to purchase steamer Admiral in 1883. He bought her at New York for $16,000. The company had no cash, but the money was advanced by Hon. Thomas McGreevy to cover the first payment of $2000. He purchased the steamer in his own name; in 1888 he transferred his title in the vessel to Robert McGreevy. Last year he again became the owner of the steamer. There was no cash paid in these transfers. After the vessel was purchased a mortgage was given to James Ross for $25,000 on the steamer. This mortgage was afterwards purchased by Larkin, Connolly & Co. and existed when the last transfer was made. During the whole of this period he (witness) was nominally owner of the vessel, but in reality he only acted as manager, and made a yearly report to the Hon. Thomas McGreevy. In February of this year he was notified that Hon. Thomas McGreevy had transferred all his interest in the Admiral to Michael Connolly. He was verbally advised of this fact by Hon. Thomas McGreevy. He identified the notice sent him through a notary. The Admiral was under contract with the government since 1883 to carry mails on the St. Lawrence, and an annual subsidy paid therefor was $12,500.

COLDSTREAM GUARDS MUTINY.

They Refuse to Drill, But are Coaxed Into Subordination by Officers.

LONDON, July 22.—London Truth this morning asserts that the mutiny of the second battalion of the Coldstream Guards occurred a week ago. The paper says the day off duty the men expected after the exacting duties in attending upon the Kaiser was not granted, but that instead the guardsmen were ordered out in full marching order. Thereupon the first and third companies of the battalion refused to obey orders and persisted in such refusal until they finally yielded to the persistent pleadings of their officers and marched to Hyde Park for their usual drill. The bearing of the men of the entire battalion assumed so insubordinate and sullen a character that the command was marched back to the barracks, within which it was ordered to be confined for three days. Ten of the oldest soldiers in the battalion were placed under arrest, whereupon ninety guardsmen barricaded themselves within their room and decided neither to emerge therefrom nor permit their officers to enter. Finally, however, the rebellious soldiers allowed themselves to be persuaded to come out from behind their barricade, when they were addressed by the commanding general, who, by judiciously stroking the men down, succeeded in quieting them. Truth's story of the revolt caused a great uneasiness in the military, where it is understood that every effort was made to prevent the fact that a mutiny had occurred among the Coldstreams becoming known. The recusant grenadiers are now on their way home from banishment in Bermuda, and curiosity is rife to know whether the much petted Coldstreams in punishment for their revolt, will be sent "strange countries for to see."

While you are reading this, 1,000,000 of men in this great free country are looking for work—men with wives and families. It costs $1,000,000 annually to support paupers in this land of liberty and equality. All the great wheat crop in the United States—$320,000,000 worth—could not pay this sum. And while all this is growing worse, 32,000 of this country's people are worth as the rule of the 65,000,000."

President Van Horne's Mission to Consult With Grand Trunk Directors.

MONTREAL, July 21.—President Van Horne, of the Canadian Pacific Railroad, has left secretly for England, having sailed from New York last Wednesday. That company wanted to keep his absence a secret, as shown by their answers to enquiries concerning his whereabouts, they saying they thought he was on a visit to the Western States.

It is rumored that his visit to England is for the purpose of having a conference in London with directors of the Grand Trunk for the purpose of coming to some agreement to end the war between them which has been so disastrous to the Grand Trunk.

STRANGE ALKALI SINK.

Weird Descriptions Sent by the Expedition to Death Valley.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Colorado desert, which has been transformed within the past few weeks into an inland sea, may soon be explored by the government. Of late the department of agriculture has been devoting its attention to the investigation of the waste regions of the United States with a view to finding out what animal and vegetable life there is on them. Ten years ago the so-called Painter desert of Arizona was the object of inquiry, and in addition to zoological and botanical specimens enriching collections, vivid pictures were brought back. Not less weird are the descriptions sent by the present expedition of Death Valley respecting the scenes and experiences in that strange alkali sink. Out even in Death Valley there is nothing as to heat and picturesqueness when compared with the Colorado desert. Reliable authorities assert that part of the desert below the sea level is the most intensely hot spot on the face of the earth. Sahara is nowhere compared with it.

FROM THE KOOTENAY COUNTRY.

Telegraph Communication—New Rate on Ore to the Smelters.

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 21.—Superintendent James Wilson, of the Canadian Pacific Telegraph Company, returned yesterday from a trip up the Kootenay country, where he has been superintending the building of the new telegraph lines. He reports that within 10 days or a fortnight there will be telegraph communication established between here and Nelson, by way of Spokane. This will be a decided convenience to residents in the interior as well as to those living here who have business to do in that part of the country.

It is learned on good authority that satisfactory arrangements have been made between the railway companies interested for a rate of freight that will enable ore to be shipped to Great Falls, Mont., from the Kootenay country for smelting. The route taken will be by the Columbia & Kootenay Railway to Sproat's Landing, by boat to Revelstoke, and by the Canadian Pacific Railroad to Dunmore, where the narrow gauge Alberta Railway & Coal Company's line and that of the Great Falls & Canada will be utilized to ship across the border to the Great Falls smelter. This announcement is coupled with the positive statement that the first shipment will be made within ten days. Heretofore all this ore has gone to Spokane for smelting.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT BILL.

Parnell's Attitude Said to be the Reason it was not Granted Sooner.

LONDON, July 22.—The surprising willingness shown by the members of the Irish party in Parliament to accept a local government bill from the Tories, and particularly a bill framed by Secretary Balfour, has furnished political circles with an abundance of material for discussion and comment. Precisely what the bill contemplated by Mr. Balfour will grant to Ireland is, of course, a matter of conjecture merely, but if it is broadly based on the lines of the English and Scotch acts, as the chief secretary has intimated it will be, the Irish members cannot consistently refuse to support it, no matter who may be their leader. It is contended by Conservative members, and admitted by Irish commoners that Ireland cannot justly ask for more liberty of action than England and Scotland are content with, and, indeed, it has all along been asserted by the Irish members that with the same privileges and the same degree of local government as England and Scotland enjoy, Ireland would be satisfied. The amazing change of attitude of the Irish members toward the Government party and Irish measure emanating therefrom is generally ascribed, and no doubt rightly, to the fact that Mr. Parnell is no longer the leader of the Irish party or any considerable portion of it. Were Mr. Parnell still in the position to control the confidence of the entire Irish party, as he once was, there is no doubt but he would have thrown cold water upon Balfour's advances and led his followers away from Home Rule, as he has often done before. An Irish member declared in the lobby of the House last evening that the conviction was now dawning upon him, as well as upon many of his colleagues, that Mr. Parnell has actually stood in the way of Home Rule for several years past. In the councils of his party he had steadily opposed every suggestion of co-operation with the Tory party in securing some slight advantage for Ireland from time to time; yet, when he was repudiated by the Liberals and deserted by a large majority of the National party he sought to make terms with the Conservatives and he would have done so had he been able to command a respectable following. There is to-day a widespread feeling among Irishmen that by the downfall of Mr. Parnell the most serious obstacle in the way of Home Rule, which must come gradually, has been removed.

SURPRISED THE COMMISSIONERS.

The reception given to the World's Fair Commissioners by the Society of Arts and Chamber of Commerce and other bodies since their arrival here has been highly gratifying to the visitors and equally encouraging to the object of their visit. Though they were prepared in advance for the display of a reasonable degree of interest in the fair on the part of English merchants, manufacturers and others, they express themselves as amazed at the enthusiasm which abounds in every circle likely to be represented at the exposition. In his reply to Sir Cuniliffe Owens' welcoming address, at the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday, Mr. Butterworth took occassion to express the unbounded surprise of himself and his colleagues at the warmth of their reception and the deep interest which the Englishmen manifest in the great American enterprise.

WILL GO TO PARIS FRIDAY.

A dispatch from Paris, whether the commissioners will go on Friday, says that the interest taken in their prospective visit justifies the belief that their reception in the French capital will be no less cordial than that which they met with in London and equally productive of good results.

WILL WELCOME THE KAISER HOME.

Berlin dispatches inform us that a movement is on foot of which the Emperor cannot be ignorant, to meet the Kaiser on his return with a popular and military reception on a scale of magnificence surpassing any event of the kind ever witnessed in the German capital. Such a welcome, it is argued on all sides, would be nothing more than a fitting close of a tour, which has consisted of a series of ovations to the Kaiser, which in every way was commensurate with his exalted position and an acknowledgment of the greatness of the Empire over which he rules.

THE RUSSIAN NERO.

Pitiable Tale of one of the Immigrants Who Became a Suspect.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Thirty detained immigrants, all Russian Jews, are awaiting the decision of the superintendent of immigration. One of them, Mendel Rogalskitfrogaski, aged 20, a carpenter by trade, tells a pitiable tale of his adventures and sufferings in Russia. He became a suspect, while working at his trade in Riga. To escape Siberia, which was inevitable in the event of his capture, he fled from city to city, but was constantly pursued.

He was finally taken prisoner, beaten and in other ways treated most inhumanly and prepared for Siberia. He again escaped and after much suffering and great hardships reached Hamburg, from whence he was assisted to this country. His savings of six years were taken from him by his captors in Russia and he came here penniless, hence his detention. He is very much affected to find that he will be returned again to Europe after all his sufferings and arduous efforts to reach America. He says if he is caught in Russia again he will surely be put to death.

The other immigrants tell similar stories. The Jewish societies have taken hold of these cases and it is likely they will succeed in getting permission for their landing.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N.Y.

The British Columbia Deposit and Loan Co., Ltd.

Capital $500,000 (with power to increase), Divided into 10,000 Shares of $50 each.

DIRECTORS:—The Hon. Sir Joseph W. Trutch, Victoria, K.C.M.G., Chairman, E. Crow Baker, Esq., Victoria; C. T. Dupont, Esq., Victoria; Thomas Earle, Esq. (Thos. Earle & Co.), Victoria, M.P., Merchant; Thomas R. Hall, (Victoria and Montreal, "Mount Royal Milling and Manufacturing Company, Limited), Victoria, Manufacturer; William Wilson, Esq. (W. & J. Wilson), Victoria, Merchant; Henry Young, Esq. (Henry Young & Co.), Victoria, Merchant.
OFFICES—Turner Block, Douglas Street, Victoria, B.C.
SOLICITORS—Messrs. Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, Bastion Street, Victoria, B.C.
BANKERS—The Bank of British Columbia, Victoria, B.C.
MANAGER—J. Keith Wilson, Esq.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

1. To invest and lend money at interest on the security of real estate or other property in British Columbia and elsewhere, or any interest therein, including existing mortgages or other securities, also to purchase the bonds or debentures of any Government or Municipal body, or of any incorporated railway company, or other incorporated body.

2. To acquire, hold and sell any such property as aforesaid, purchased as aforesaid, or accepted as security for money advanced by or owing to the Company.

3. To build on, drain, let, farm, develop or otherwise utilize or improve, and generally exercise the rights of owners over any property the Company may lend on or acquire an interest in.

4. To undertake agencies and conduct financial business of any kind in British Columbia or elsewhere.

5. To receive and take money on deposit, or for investment on the guarantee of the Company or otherwise, or to guarantee payment of any money expressed to be secured by any mortgage.

6. To borrow money at interest, and to issue bonds or debentures as security therefor; and

7. To perform all such acts, matters and things as the Company may deem incidental or otherwise conducive to the attainment of any of the above objects, or to the conversion or disposition of any security or property held by the Company.

The organization of the Company is the result of the consideration by its promoters of the subject of Insurance, which now permeates nearly every class of mercantile business. When considering the subject it occurred to them that if the principle of Insurance in the form of a satisfactory guarantee for the due payment of interest at a rate to be agreed upon and against loss of principal, were to be applied to the ordinary investment of money on securities, a large percentage of capital now on deposit at low rates of interest in the savings banks and other depositories, and which is locked up, would be withdrawn and become available for loans on securities, and thus be put in circulation.

With a view of offering such guarantee this Company has been incorporated with a capital of $500,000 (with power to increase), a small instalment only, viz., $10,000, of which has been called up to meet initiatory expenses. The remaining unpaid portion of this capital sum, viz., $490,000, shall form such guarantee to investors with the Company, which it is intended to supplement by the creation of a Reserve Fund, of which the unexpended balance of the capital called up shall form the nucleus.

It is further intended that no calls shall be made in respect to the unpaid capital except to meet liabilities.

The whole of the capital has been subscribed by persons whose position, both financially and socially, is believed to be unquestionable, and by the Articles of Association no person can hold more than 200 shares (representing $10,000), nor will any shareholder be at liberty to have transfer of his shares registered without the sanction of the Directors having first been obtained.

Deposits may be secured by debentures to be issued by the Company or by similar debentures secured by the hypothecation of securities taken by the Company.

Arrangements may be effected with the Company for the guarantee of securities approved by the Company.

A CALL FOR PROOF.

The Vancouver Telegram waxes indignant over our conclusion that the Ottawa Government is corrupt, and it loudly calls for "proof or retraction." Proof, quotha! It is not proof, but a mind and conscience to appreciate the truth, that the Telegram wants. Teste the following remarkable utterance of our contemporary:

It is time that a stop were put to the system of organized slander by which the Liberal organs are corrupting and debauching the public mind, with a view to pave the way for a return of their own party to power. By similar means they attained once to power, nearly 18 years ago, and it is clearly evident that the leaders and organs of the party are playing the same game again. Their success in 1873 nearly led to the ruin of the country. They must not be permitted a second chance by such means, or the case of Canada under Liberal rule will again be worse than it was in the disastrous years from 1873 to 1879, when the country arose and with great unanimity turned them out of office.

Sir JOHN MACDONALD, we all know, when he looked back to the days of the Pacific scandal felt no remorse for having engaged in one of the most shameful transactions recorded in the history of politics, but did regret exceedingly that his sin had found him out. He never ceased to resent as a personal grievance the discovery and exposure of his immorality by the awful Grits, nor to represent them as enemies of and conspirators against their country because through their agency he was driven from power in disgrace and dishonor. It is not surprising that the Telegram and many of its friends, from their ingrained habit of looking to their old leader for inspiration, should have contracted moral strabismus like unto his. The Old Man would have insisted to the last that his colleagues were immaculate and that the Grits were all to blame for the wretched mess at Ottawa; therefore these faithful disciples take the same peculiar line. And thus it is that the Telegram calls for "proof" in the face of the revelations which have been recorded day by day in all the newspapers, itself included.

If the Telegram chooses to ignore MURPHY's evidence, let it study that of Mr. VALIN, whose statements are given in another column. If it is determined to regard Mr. VALIN as unreliable, though he always has been and still claims to be a good Conservative, let it look at MARTIN CONNOLLY's evidence as given in this morning's Ottawa dispatches to the Colonist:—

Martin P. Connolly, bookkeeper of the firm, testified that he had charged $5000 to the account of Three Rivers, because he had heard in conversation, that this sum had been spent on the election at Three Rivers. He also stated that sums, aggregating thousands of dollars, had been paid to the inspectors on the works since 1883, so as to make false reports in the interest of the contractors, for the work was never done. These inspectors received a percentage. The evidence created a great sensation, and was with the greatest difficulty extracted from the witness. The Public Accounts committee investigated the methods of Charlebois, the contractor for the Langevin block, this morning. It appears Charlebois has bled the sub-contractors to the full limit. Fensom, the contractor for the elevators, having paid $8000 for the privilege of getting into the building.

Three Rivers, we may explain, is Sir HECTOR's constituency. So much for Sir HECTOR. If the Telegram, not satisfied with the facts unearthed by the investigating committees at Ottawa, wants proof of the prevalence of corruption in the other departments, let it carefully peruse the following article from Le Canada, which we again reproduce for its benefit:

Nepotism, favoritism, malversation, speculation, injustice—and they are the order of the day! The Chief Engineer of the Department of Public Works has just succumbed, and yet that department is comparatively a model of honest administration. Let us look around, let us cast a scrutinizing eye on those departments whose political leaders owe their advancement to political influence or other unmentionable means. There we find officialism installed, deep-rooted with all its environments. It is master of the situation. The frightful results of its reign are cruelly felt among those who are not its favorites. It leaves everywhere its hideous traces; it reigns by corruption, it lives for pillage, it delights in injustice, in despotism and in imbecility. That is what rules certain ministers at Ottawa. That is the cursed system which takes root in the offices of state, thanks to certain incapable ministers unable to see what is patent to everyone. We still have "percentage bloodhounds." It is that organization on another footing but equally detestable, equally corrupt, and equally deep-rooted. They attach themselves to their victims with the tenacity and courage of the wild beast. They begin by borrowing, then propose a division of the profits, and in the end threaten with brazen effrontery if the former means are not successful. We write these lines in the greatest sangfroid and knowing perfectly the weight and gravity of these accusations. We confine ourselves to-day to generalities; later we will enter into details.

Le Canada is a friend of the Government, and the Telegram will perhaps allow that it is a fairly good authority.

ANTI-McCONNANITES.

Trustee McCONNAN would be an obstructionist if he could; and one cannot help thinking of what a "snap" the Department of Education would have if the Trustees were all McCONNANS. Mr. McCONNAN would not resurrect the past. Mr. McCONNAN would let by gones be by gones. He would forgive if he could not forget. He would permit the Department of Education to mark Latin dullards up and Latin proficients down. This is what the vassal of the Department of Education would do.

In thinking over the question, the powers of Trustees vs. the prerogatives of the Department of Education, it should seem that more legislation will be necessary. The present measure does not meet all of the exigencies that may arise where McCONNANS are in the minority, that is, the measure does not provide the ways and means for the Department of Education to escape the moral consequences of its rash acts, and "Honest JOHN" as the seasons roll round will have to clap on amendments to his pet measure till the requisite degree of departmental autocracy, moral as well as physical, is reached. The Koran when MAHOMET first offered it to the Arabs was not the complete volume that it is at present. As questions arose for which the Koran had not provided, MAHOMET added chapters to meet the exigencies of the case, and the consequence was that after a few years Koranistic jurisprudence covered every question likely to arise in Arab society. Just so with "Honest JOHN." He will continue to add amendment after amendment to his school law so that the Department of Education shall not be amenable to anybody in any way, shape or form. We lay stress on this feature of the case because it is morally certain that the Superintendent of Education, not legally bound to answer the interrogations of the Trustees, will scarcely regard himself morally bound to do so. The moral features of the case when they clash with departmental self-interest do not go for much at James Bay. A Department of Education which holds that it is a court which sits upon itself and is competent to impartially review its own acts and to impartially pronounce thereon cannot be regarded as exemplifying ethical transcendentalism. Do the Trustees really think that the Superintendent of Education will come before them and explain why Latin dullards were promoted? Not if there is a loop hole in the conscience of the Superintendent of Education, large enough for him to crawl through. If, however, he does find it necessary to present himself before the Trustees, inquisition, depend upon it, it will be the last time. At the next session of the House "Honest JOHN" will introduce an amendment which will effectually squelch the high pretensions of anti-McConnanites.

THE TRUE FAITH.

To the mind wavering between free trade and protection, and which, perhaps, is little given to reflection one way or the other, the phrase, "that free trade may be the true faith but certainly it does not prevail," carries more weight than can be expressed in pages of argument. That particular usage which has general sanction is popularly supposed to be right, and so by the same process of reasoning protection being general in practice, free trade must be wrong. But this is an unsafe mode of reasoning. The errors that have been sanctioned by society are legion. Reforms originate with the minority. If the philosophy expressed in the sentence we have just quoted is sound, it would be quite as logical to urge that Christianity is a failure for the reason that those who dissent from it are in the majority. No, it will not do to condemn free trade because it does not "prevail." Rather, owing to the fact that it does not, should it be studied all the more earnestly; for, if free trade is not the true faith we must find out what is. Protection, we know, in common parlance, does not "fill the bill."

McKinleyism just now, if not growing in favor, is not losing ground. "Protectionists," if we may believe the London Graphic, "have acquired the right to regard themselves quite a serious school of economists. Protection has shown an elasticity," according to this journal, "to which free trade is a perfect stranger. It adapts itself to means and ends, and this, doubtless, is the secret of its success." What the Graphic has reference to is the clause in the McKinley Bill which permits inter-state free trade with protection against non-participating countries. There is something about this clause which almost persuades the free trader to be a protectionist. Since the world will not have free trade per se why not have protection modified by a clause of this kind? But after all what is this clause but a recognition of the free trade principle? What is it but baby free trade; an interstice in the wall of protection purposely left to facilitate exchange of commodities? If this is not so what does it express, and could anything be plainer than that the principle followed to its logical conclusion brings us face to face with the fullest free trade possible where legislatures are controlled by capitalized interests, and where orators are subsidized to befog an obtuse electorate?

In the matter of protection the United States have everything in their favor, and particularly as compared with England. England is land poor. She cannot, or at least does not, produce food products in quantity to meet the requirements of her teeming population. She must import her food, and that she may manufacture cheaply it is essential that that food be cheap. As England is circumstanced it is imperative that she admit food products duty free. In the United States the situation is reversed. The United States produces food for export. The United States in large part supply England's food. If there should be a complete failure of crops throughout the States the cost of living in England would be considerably enhanced. But, suppose England was independent of the United States in the matter of food supply? Suppose it was the case that England's Colonies were able to supply her with food, and suppose England should clap a duty on American food imports, admitting, of course, colonial food imports duty free? What would be the consequence? Would the Americans regard their McKinley bill a very elastic measure? Shall we suppose that they would long hesitate about repealing an import tax of sixty-five per cent. on British goods? A tax of ten cents a bushel on American wheat, and a thirty per cent. tax on American beef would bring American wheat growers and American beef raisers to the brink of ruin. It is all very well to point to the reciprocity clause in the McKinley bill as a model of elasticity. It operates first-rate in the matter of working off special lines of products, but if England, America's greatest consumer of staple products, should clap a tax on these products the Americans, we fancy would find McKinleyism an expensive and even ruinous luxury. The treaties with Brazil and Spain are no true tests of the elasticity of protection as illustrated by the McKinley bill. Neither of these nations are large enough consumers. The true test of protection would be for the greatest consumer of the staple products of a given country to retaliate in kind. We venture to say that if England were in a position to retaliate the effect would be to elect a Democratic President. The only way to fight the devil successfully is with his own weapons; and we could wish if it were practicable, that England might clap a 35 per cent duty on American food imports. It would afford a splendid test of the elasticity of McKinleyism. Did McKinleyism survive it, free traders could then agree that protection and not free trade is the "true faith."

CAN'T COMPETE WITH ENGLAND.

The impression is that but for the tariff England would monopolize the home market of American manufacturers. Figures, however, show differently. The latest report by the Bureau of Statistics shows that Great Britain is the United States' best customer, not merely in the matter of raw material but with reference to agricultural implements, books, maps, engravings and other printed matter, builders' hardware, saws and tools, sewing machines, leather, refined sugar and manufactures of wood. England is second only to Canada in her purchases of American miscellaneous cotton manufactures, and to Australasia in purchases of tobacco. She buys more American steam engines than any other country except the West Indies, and more carriages and cars than any other country outside of Latin America. She buys more American sewing machines than all the American nations combined, and three times as much leather and four times as much sugar as all the rest of the world. Of these things the Americans sell to England more than she sells to the Americans, and all this without any protection and with freights against instead of in their favor. Furthermore, it is notorious that in neutral markets, in many lines of manufacture, the Americans have successfully met British competition. In these circumstances, how does it come about that McKinleyism is inseparable from manufacturing development in the United States? The fact of the matter is, McKinleyism grew out of the manufacturers' demand, and the people are footing the bills. What is the consequence? Wealth is passing into the hands of the few. The same is the case in Canada. The great body of the people are making a bare livelihood but a few manufacturers are piling up their hundreds of thousands.

A FORECAST.

An American contributor to a French periodical contrasts the political prospects of Europe with those of this continent. He starts with the assumption that the best way to determine a nation's grade of civilization and possibilities of progress is to compare its annual outlay for the education of the mass of its inhabitants with the other expenditures provided for in its budget, and especially with the sums disbursed with a view to war. He then proceeds to lay before us some interesting statistics, showing how much is expended by European countries for public instruction on the one hand and for national defence upon the other.

Beginning with Germany, we find that in schools (exclusive of universe

CANADIAN NEWS.

Late Canadian News Culled From our Exchanges.

The Empire's Montreal correspondent says he learns on the best authority that the Quebec Legislature will be called together sometime in November.

Engineer Johnston, of the steamer Campana, which runs from Chicago to Montreal, was killed in the engine room of that vessel, on her last trip East. He belonged to Kingston.

The journeymen, plumbers, gas-fitters, and steam-fitters, of London, Ont., are on a strike. They ask among other things, for fifty hours' work for a week, nine hours every day but Saturday, and five hours on that day.

The Montreal agents of the Donaldson line, whose steamship Circe is ashore on the Island of Anticosti, yesterday received advices to the effect that Captain Jennings and five of his crew, who had remained on the vessel in hope of being able to save it, have been drowned. No particulars have been received. The names of the five sailors have not yet been ascertained.

The Parisian, bearing Premier Mercier back to his native shore, was boarded, on Saturday, at Father Point by a newspaper reporter, who talked with the Premier all the way to Quebec. Mr. Mercier informed the reporter that he had received a cablegram from France announcing that the provincial debentures were all taken, on Thursday, with a rush. He received a great reception on landing.

The Toronto World's Ottawa correspondent says: "I have it on the best authority that Mr. Abbott and Sir John Thompson have the resignation of all their colleagues in hand, to go into effect as soon as the session is over. If the Opposition insist on making more charges, and continuing the session, the government will introduce a measure of redistribution as soon as the census figures can be added up, and that means a general election. The leaders, so their near friends say, have, as a first duty, to keep the Reformers out of power, and, next, to reconstruct the government, and appeal, if necessary, to the country as soon as the lists are revised and the seats redistributed. They are ready to sit until October in order to do this."

STONEWALL JACKSON HONORED.

Statue to the Confederate Hero Unveiled by His Granddaughter.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 22.—The statue of Stonewall Jackson was unveiled yesterday. At 11 o'clock the preliminary exercises were held on the campus of the Washington and Lee University, where a grand stand was erected fronting the main building and over-looking the broad expanse of the rising ground, forming an amphitheatre equal to the accommodation of 40,000 people. General Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, was presiding officer, and to the right and left of him on the grand stand were groups of surviving officers of the confederate army and navy and other prominent persons. With a few words of greeting General Hampton introduced Rev. A. C. Hopkins, D.D., of Charleston, who was chaplain of Stonewall Jackson's staff and who invoked the blessing of the Almighty on the country, and especially commended to Divine Providence the welfare of the Southern States. Amid rousing cheers, which continued several moments, General J. A. Early was introduced as the orator of the day, and the "grizzled veteran," as General Hampton said in his introductory remarks, is probably the best informed survivor in the country on the civil war and its history. He eloquently dilated on the life, character, and military achievements of that renowned warrior. A poem by Mrs. Margaret J. Preston, the well known southern poetess, was the next feature of the programme, but it was announced from the chair that she had not been able, as the result of enfeebled health, to fulfill her promise to prepare some appropriate verses. As a substitute, Col. T. M. Simms read the Confederate war poems, "Stonewall Jackson's Way" and "Over the River." The pronouncing of the benediction brought this portion of the exercises to a conclusion and the participants in the gathering at once began to form in line for the grand parade under command of ex Gov. General James A. Walker, the only surviving commander of Stonewall's brigade, and the chief marshall. Promptly at noon the firing of cannon gave the signal for the head of the line to move. Gen. Walker and his aides led the way. Then came the survivors of Stonewall Jackson's brigade, some on foot, others on horseback, and many who were old, enfeebled or crippled in carriages. Next came the survivors of Staunton's, Poague's and Carpenter's brigades, thousands of them, with Col. W. Poague in command; then the surviving officers, Colonels Commings, Gregsley, Edmondson and Williams. After these came carriages with the honorary guests, the orator, presiding officers, sculptor of the statue, Mr. Valentine, Mrs. Gen. Jackson, and E. Christian, of the New York Forum. The walks along the line of march were packed with spectators and so were the windows. Twenty bands furnished music. The route was so arranged as to include the grounds of the Virginia Military Institute, where for ten years General Stonewall Jackson was a beloved professor. It was nearly 2 o'clock before the main body of the procession reached the cemetery, where not less than 30,000 people had surrounded the tomb. The firing of guns indicated that the exercises were about to commence. As a prelude the combined bands rendered "My Country 'tis of Thee," and then amid rousing cheers, little Julia Jackson Christian, grand-daughter of the late warrior, gave a gentle pull to the cord and the veil which had hidden the heroic bronze figure of Stonewall Jackson fell away. As the canvas fell to the ground the old survivors of Manassas, who composed the Rock Bridge battery, fired a salute of 17 guns with the artillery used in that battle, while cheers from 30,000 throats rent the air.

Drew Beer from the Bunghole.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—United States internal revenue officers to-day seized the Hayes Valley brewing and an auxiliary bottling establishment for violating the revenue laws. It is claimed by the officers that the brewery, which has a capacity of about 1000 barrels per month, has for sometime had an arrangement with retail dealers whereby, instead of drawing beer from the spigot hole, over which the revenue stamp is pasted, they drew beer from the bunghole. The uncancelled stamps were then purchased by the brewery for 50 cents each and used over again. The beer was sold on the same conditions to the bottling establishments.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS
OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW,
SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the BUCHOO KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

sities, which are to a large extent maintained by private endowments and fees; only about $10,000,000 are devoted by the state, against nearly $185,000,000 for military and naval purposes. In the dual monarchy of Austria-Hungary the army and navy cost $64,500,000 a year, while only $6,250,000 are allotted to education. In Italy the situation is still more deplorable. Italians pay almost $90,000,000 yearly for the protection of their country, and $4,000,000 on the system of public instruction, exclusive of the universities. France is doing better, although the sum annually allotted to the public schools ($21,000,000 in round numbers) is far from being adequate, and contrasts strangely with the $151,000,000 called for by the military and naval estimates. The data presented by Russia are less discouraging than might have been expected. Russia assigns to educational appliances nearly $17,000,000 a year, four times as much as Italy, though, on the other hand, she spends yearly for her army and navy $209,000,000. Even in England the disproportion is striking, for the army and navy cost $156,000,000 a year, while less than $24,000,000 are laid out for public education—exclusive of the universities, most of which have funds of their own. Should, however, the education bill now pending become a law, the sum annually devoted to the public school system will be greatly increased. The most melancholy exhibit is made by Spain, where the army and navy cost upward of $100,000,000 a year, whereas the government can only spare $1,500,000 for the liberal and technical education of the citizen.

From these facts the writer infers that in the twentieth century Europe cannot hope to compete for economical pre-eminence against this continent, which is not crushed with the burdens of enormous armaments, and which are consequently able to devote an adequate amount of their resources to the education of the people.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

FRANK A. BURR, in July Lippincott's, writes of the "Cuba of to-day" and draws a dismal picture. Everything is taxed. It costs the landlord of a hotel a five cent revenue stamp every time a guest registers at his hostelry. A tax is put upon the table as well as upon the book, upon the cart and upon the fruits of the field. Only one-eighth of Cuba is cultivated and yet with all its depressing conditions it raises more for mankind than any equal number of acres upon earth. With anything like decent cultivation Cuba could raise the sugar of the world, contribute largely to its fruits, enrich its mining industries, contribute the richest of hard woods for its furniture trade and yet remain in comparative idleness and grow lazy as it grows rich. Such is BURR's estimate of Cuba, and small wonder it is that Spain clings to the Island tenaciously.

The public must understand that Mr. DAVIN will not travel under Mr. DEWDNEY's shadow, that he does not profit by Mr. DEWDNEY's popularity—in fact that DEWDNEY's popularity is but a dream, while DAVIN's is real and solid. Says the Regina Leader:

The people of the North-West will readily see how absurd is the statement that Mr. Davin had to use the honorable Dewdney's popularity in fighting his election—popular as Mr. Davin was himself. But for being Minister of the Interior, Dewdney would not have been elected, and even giving him the Minister's position, if he had had a strong candidate against him, he could not have been elected. How, then, could Mr. Davin have used his "popularity"?

It must be borne in mind that this is not Mr. DAVIN's utterance, but the Leader's, as Mr. DAVIN has informed the public that he does not write articles for the Leader while attending to his sessional duties.

The State of Illinois has passed an anti-trust law and strange to say it seems to be operative. The watch trust has already gone by the board, and several Chicago firms under contract with trusts have cancelled their engagements. The law enacts that "If any corporation, co-partnership, individual, or other association of persons whatsoever shall create, enter into, become a part of or a party to any pool, trust, agreement, combination, confederation or understanding, with any other person, or association of persons, to regulate or fix the price of any article of merchandise or commodity, such corporation, co-partnership or individual, or other association of persons shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of conspiracy to defraud and be subject to indictment and punishment. The law provides for penalties on conviction of from $500 to $15,000. The curious feature of the case is, that President AVERY, of the Elgin Watch Company, asked how such a law came to be passed replied that, "nobody ever dreamed of such a thing," and that if there had been any notice that such a law was about to be passed it would have been defeated. This is pretty good. By what manner or means would President AVERY have defeated the measure? Would he have it go abroad that the Legislature of Illinois has its price?

AN EXPLANATION.

Last evening a man who is pretty well acquainted with the bears at the park, but not the caretaker, as has been mentioned, got into one of the pits and tried to put an extra collar on bruin. This was not appreciated by his bearship, who started to make a supper from the man's arm. A gentleman present grabbed bruin before he could do much damage.

After which the members retired to the library where refreshments were served.

The Wellington Mines to be Sold.

It has been stated in financial circles during the last few days that negotiations were pending for the sale of the Wellington mines to an Australian and American syndicate. These negotiations, it is learned, are not yet completed, but it is expected they will be in the course of a day or two. It is expected that the operations of the mines will be greatly enlarged as soon as the sale is closed. The interested parties will not for the present mention the consideration at which the mines will change hands, but it is a large one.

The Daily Justice Mill.

Thomas Regan appeared before Mr. Edwin Johnson, S.M., this morning on a charge of vagrancy, to which he pleaded guilty. He submitted that he could not get anything to do; although to look at he is a strong healthy fellow. Mr. Johnson was seemingly of opinion that there was something optional in Regan's inability to find employment, and sent him to a location where he will find compulsory employment for one month. John Boaz acknowledged to his honor that the charge of drunkenness preferred by Officer Walker was correct, and paid the five dollars imposed by the court. Ada Brown had the honor of being presented on a charge of keeping a questionable house. She pleaded not guilty, and the case was remanded till Friday, when Sergeant Walker, who preferred the charge, will be present.

Fire and Water.

The fire and water departments are at war. As a rule the former fights fire with the latter, but now there is to be a distinction between the two, owing to the claim of the water department to sole and supreme control of the water supply, except in cases of fire. The matter came forward at last week's council meeting and was decided in favor of the water department. Accordingly Chairman of Firewardens Richards has given notice that at this evening's meeting he will move, That all fire hydrants be placed in the hands of the fire department; that the chief engineer of the fire department report any defect in the working of any of the hydrants to the water commissioners immediately upon discovering same, and that the water works department point out to the chief engineer of the fire department the position of all valves in connection with the hydrants.

This means war, and the opening shots of to-night's campaign are looked forward to with interest by the members of the two departments.

Ladies and Camp Life

A number of popular young ladies from a well-known drygoods house in this city are rusticating and doing the grand at Millstream Villa and Windsor Castle (as their respective camps are named), which are located a short distance from Shawnigan Lake. It is refreshing to see them as they sally forth at sunrise with gun or rod to do deadly execution to whatever may cross their path, or take the wily fly, which they so dexterously cast. One well-known singer has made the statement that she caught 17 fine trout in a few hours, and several of them considerably smaller than salmon. To realize what pleasure there is in camp life accompanied by a brother, one would need to visit this temporary villa or castle, as several of the young men in the vicinity have done. They were received and entertained in such a hospitable manner that they one and all agreed that they were nice, and think that they will come again!

The Agricultural Loan By-Law.

At to night's council meeting it will be moved by Ald. Renouf, seconded by Ald. Holland:—Whereas on June 24th this Council did adopt a recommendation of the finance committee to aid the Provincial Exhibit Association for 1891; and

Whereas the finance committee did recommend that in consideration of granting such aid the interests of this city should be considered by the Association; and

Whereas this Council learns with regret that all arrangements have been completed without allowing those interested in this city a voice in the matter; and

Whereas, such action tends to impair the utility of a "Provincial Exhibit Association" and is not in accordance with the recommendation adopted by this Board:

Be it Resolved, That this Board do deem it advisable in the best interests of this city to rescind the resolution of June 24th, 1891, for the reasons above stated, and that the city clerk be instructed to send a copy of this resolution to the president of the Exhibit Association at Vancouver, B.C., and to the president of the Board of Trade.

FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT.

Bright Prospects for a Successful Festival—Committee Getting to Work.

There was a good attendance at the meeting called last evening in the city hall to discuss the arrangements for the firemen's tournament, to take place here Sept. 28th, 29th and 30th.

The committee on ways and means reported that about $3000 would be needed, and stated that several of the companies had promised support, while the others would no doubt follow suit.

Accordingly, the following committee was appointed to make collections: Ald. F. G. Richards, T. J. Burnes, Chief Engineer Deasy, M. J. Conlin, J. Braden, A. G. McCandless, Thos Shaw, M. Young, Frank Campbell, D. Hart, Geo. Byrnes, D. W. Morrow, Beaumont Boggs and Ald. Munn. These gentlemen will at once set to work to get matters into line for the approaching celebration.

The following committees were appointed: Printing committee—D. R. Ker, G. Balmbridge and Ald. Holland. Music committee—M. Young, A. Lewis and D. W. Morrow.

In answer to a question from the chair the Chief Engineer of the fire department informed the meeting that the tournament would take place in this city, commencing on September 28. The programme would consist of races in which teams of fifteen men would compete and three days would be required to allow every team to take part. The tournament would be held on one of the principal streets and would be under the direction of the association. The meeting of chiefs and others interested in fire matters would be held after the tournament. The firemen of Oregon, Washington and British Columbia would attend, and visitors from California and the Eastern Provinces are expected. The exhibition of the B.C. Agricultural Society will take place at the same time and the visitors will remain in the city for at least one week.

The secretary was instructed to apply to the City Council for permission to use the City Hall for meetings.

The committee adjourned until the collecting committee report the result of their operations.

"WRAUGHTON" SMITH.

The Dominion Advertising Company Disappears From the City.

Towards the end of last year there arrived in this city a man named "Wraughton" Smith, who started business under the name of the Dominion Advertising Company. He seemed to prosper very well for a while, he having built up a good business for himself. But there are some people who cannot stand prosperity and there are several persons in this city that are of opinion that Wraughton Smith was one of that kind. In fact several have gone as far as re christening him "Rotten" Smith. This change in his name was made last evening when the aforesaid several persons learned that Smith had taken his departure from the city without having first called upon them.

The office of the Dominion Advertising Company was located over Barrett & Carpenter's real estate office on Government street, and the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wraughton Smith was in the house of a lady who resides in James Bay. Mrs. Smith left the city several days ago ostensibly on a pleasure trip. Smith remained in the city until yesterday for the purpose of winding up his business for his own benefit. It is said that he went to his lodging house and in some way induced the landlady to leave the premises. While she was gone Smith took his trunk and departed. He also took good care to take everything valuable out of his workshop, which is now bare. The first intimation of Smith's disappearance was given by the landlady, who notified a well-known grocer, who also had a small account against Smith. The grocer started out, more for the sake of the lady than for himself, but the search was a fruitless one, and Smith is no doubt by this time enjoying the novelty of being a resident of Uncle Sam's dominion.

He could hardly have left the city a poor man, as he did a good business and failed to pay for the material used. Harvey & Harrild, who made the sign boards for the Dominion Advertising Company, have not yet been paid; Barrett & Carpenter have a bill for $167, and numerous other creditors would like to see Smith.

He had a partner when he first started in business, who, however, could not get on with Wroughton, so they dissolved.

FROM NORTHERN PORTS.

The Skeena River Track With Salmon—Improvement on the Naas.

The steamer Barbara Boscowitz arrived from the north at 6 o'clock this morning with a number of cabin and steerage passengers and a lot of freight consisting of lumber and furs. Among the cabin passengers were Mrs. Todd and daughter, A. J. McLellan and Mrs. Barnes.

While the Boscowitz was at Alert Bay the sawmill at that place was not in working order, the machinery having broken down. The people of Alert Bay, or at least a majority of them, are suffering from la grippe.

The salmon run on the Skeena is the best that has been known for years, the fish being so thick that it is with difficulty that they are handled. The canneries cannot keep up with the catch. The run on the Naas is also improving wonderfully and the canners are looking forward to a splendid season.

The bodies of the Indians killed by the recent land slide at the North Pacific Cannery, have been taken to their former home at Port Chester, Alaska. They were all Duncanite Indians.

Fooling a Mare.

Sir George Chetwynd, the well-known English race horse owner says: While in the colonies last summer, I learned a groom's trick about making a milch mare adopt an orphaned colt. A groom in the employ of William Fisher, of Brandon, in New South Wales, came in one day and told the master that one of his favorite mares was dead. She had a filly just two weeks old, and I suggested that he get a common mare and knock her foal in the head, so that she could act as wet nurse to the foal of the dead daughter of Yettendon. "Niver moind, soir," said the quick witted Irish groom. "I know a thrick that bates that intoirely," and sure enough he did. He asked Mr. Fisher for a glass of brandy, and filling his mouth with it, after the manner of a Chinese laundryman, sprinkled it over the shoulders and withers of the little orphan. He then told Mr. Fisher to take more brandy and rub the mare's nose with it. This was done and in less than ten minutes, the orphan was taking his nourishment from his step mother. The trick was such a clever one that on my return here from Australia, I told Col. Thornton about it, and on the death of Kate Dudley he put it into practice at once. The brandy was brought, and now the visitors to Rescca can see a big brown mare nursing two foals, one on either side, and apparently unaware as to which is her own legitimate offspring.

SEAL SKINS AGAIN.

TO THE EDITOR,—In your issue of last evening Carne & Munsie have a letter accusing me of being meddlesome, and for fear that I may have a relapse with the same complaint and more acute, they go on to explain that their item in your paper was not correct, in fact admitting what I said in my letter to be the truth.

Now, sir, at the risk of being considered meddlesome by Carne & Munsie, I will endeavor to set forth the facts and if I am wrong perhaps they will correct me.

In my letter in your paper, taking exception to the statement about the shipment of seal skins, I may state my only object was to try and stop a wrong impression from going abroad as there are quite a number in the sealing business who have not been so fortunate as Mr. Munsie in getting seals as they have, and whose only salvation for not being allowed to seal in the Behring Sea, is compensation from the British Government for closing the sea against them.

Mr. Munsie, over the firm's name, admits that the statement was wrong. I will now as I said before, try and put him right. The number of skins shipped I admit to be correct, for the simple reason that I never doubted it, but I think Mr. Munsie might be more explicit and give the number of schooners interested in that shipment, but now he evades the question and says that it being the catch of three schooners is incorrect. Well let us see how many are interested in the 4702 skins. First comes the Mary Taylor with a catch of 497, Pioneer 874, May Belle 701, City of San Diego, 512, Viva 1261. Now, this only makes a total of 3845 skins, leaving 657 to be accounted for. Will Mr. Munsie explain and only take credit where credit is due for I will take it upon myself to warn Mr. Munsie that every word he says and writes in connection with the sealing question may be brought up in judgment against him, when his claim for compensation is made, and he may depend that neither the British or the American governments are going to pay one cent more for losses sustained by the sealers than they can help. I therefore again caution Mr. Munsie or any other making misleading statements to stick to facts, for they will always stand on their own bottom. D. URQUHART.

NOTE.—The original item in the TIMES was written by a member of the TIMES staff, and for the accuracy thereof neither Mr. Munsie nor Carne & Munsie are responsible. Very little importance was attached by the writer to the number of schooners engaged in the catch, the object being to state, as an item of news, that the shipment of skins was a large and valuable one. It was understood that the catch had been made by Carne & Munsie's schooners and one other vessel, and the item was written, "the catch of their schooners," but the words "three schooners" appeared in print. The paragraph in other respects is quite accurate.—ED. TIMES.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

A. E. Seaton, who is connected with Earle's Shipbuilding Company, of Hull, Eng., contributes to the July number of Scribner's Steamship Series an article on "Speed on Steamers." Commenting on the probability of "five day steamers" on the Atlantic, the author says: "It is always a question of cui bono, and when it is taken into consideration that the voyage between Sandy Hook and Queenstown is now done in 140 hours, and to do the distance in five days would require a speed of 23¼ knots, with an increase in power of 62 per cent., and in fuel consumption of 38 per cent., the cry must be regarded as a very far one at present. At the same time it is not desirable to believe that there is now finality in the speed of steamships, although by analogy with railway trains that conclusion might be arrived at."

OUR PARKS.

To the Editor:—I see that the Park Committee have under consideration the offer of Mr. Brownlee to accept a small portion of Mount Tolmie as a Park, and as I have never seen that any one has anything to say either for or against the offer, I should like to draw the attention of the public and the committee to a few facts: The offer of Mr. Brownlee is very generous, but the stipulations attached to it are what the ratepayers object to. If the corporation has lots of money to spend on the Parks, I think they have room for all they have to spare on the two Parks at present owned by the city, that is Beacon Hill Park and Cedar Hill Park. I dare say there are quite a number of small Parks or bluffs of rocks inside the city that the corporation might have on the same terms. Now, Mr. Editor, I should like the committee, before they conclude to accept the offer, to ascertain whether they could not spend, say $7000 or $10,000, on the present Parks, and if they consider they are perfection, why they might spend the money on some of the new streets, so that the citizens may either walk or drive without fear of accident. Thanking you kindly for your valuable space,

CEDAR HILL.

THE COLONIST AND EDUCATION.

To the Editor:—We can hardly imagine that the Colonist, which is generally so well posted in educational affairs, is ignorant of the School Act. However, as it tries to make out that it is the not the duty of the school trustees to see that their school is conducted according to the rules and regulations, we would call its attention to the following extract from a letter of Supt. S. D. Pope's written on Nov. 13th, 1889, to Mr. T. D. Lindsay, secretary Board of Trustees, English school district, found on page 7, appendix A, Legislative Journal, 1890.

"Please allow me to call your attention to section 46 of the Public School Act, which says that it is the duty of trustees to see that the school is conducted according to the authorized regulations. It must be apparent to you that the department would not be justified in allowing schools to remain in operation in which the rules and regulations are not obeyed."

Again, on page 8, in a letter dated Nov. 22, 1889, Dr. Pope writes:

"It must be apparent to you that to maintain the efficiency of the schools, uniform rules must be prescribed for the guidance of teachers, and that a teacher wilfully violating these rules must be held responsible to some authority. Under section 46 of the School Act he is responsible to the Board of Trustees, and under sub-section 8 of section 12 of the Act it is my duty to see that the school is conducted according to law

Will the Colonist still maintain that the Superintendent of Education is in the same position as the Queen, viz., "that he can do no wrong and is the fountain of law!" Unless the Colonist is prepared to uphold that position, it must surely be aware that since the teacher is responsible to the trustees, that it is the duty of the trustees to see that their school is conducted according to law, and that the efficiency of the schools depends upon uniform rules; then the trustees are the proper tribunal to investigate and decide whether their school has been conducted according to the rules or not.

Under the new Act there is only a Superintendent of Education in name, who draws his salary and acts as secretary to the Board of Education, and who, possibly, is responsible to nobody for what he does; but surely he can appear before the trustees and tell them about the examinations, even if he should have to carefully study what words he could use in order to avoid falsehood, as according to his sworn statement on page 109, Journal of 1890, he used to do at the public examinations of the Victoria High School, which appears as follows:

Question.—Did you not at each semi-annual examination of the Victoria High School, whilst under the principalship of J. N. Muir, compliment him highly, and sometimes very highly, upon the success of the school?

Dr. Pope's answer.—I have frequently studied what words I could use on such occasions in order to avoid falsehood.

We hope the school trustees of Victoria will continue the investigation, and satisfy themselves and the public that our schools are conducted according to the rules and regulations, and not according to the whims and fancies of any official.

Enforcing Sunday Law.

Walla Walla, July 20.—Enforcement of the Sunday law is creating much excitement. Since the killing of Hunt by the soldiers the saloons of the city have been closed on Sunday, and lately the saloons have concluded to make a strong effort to defeat the law. This morning the city marshall arrested Charles H. Rose, Adolph Schwarz and Henry Retzer, who will be tried tomorrow. They express the intention of carrying the matter to the Supreme Court of the State if necessary.

The Court-Martial on Lieut. Evans.

Washington, D. C., July 21.—The record of the proceedings of the court-martial in the case of Lieut. Geo. H. Evans, company G, 10th cavalry, stationed at Fort Grant, Ariz., have just reached the war department. The court found the accused guilty on the charge of drunkenness while on duty, and sentenced him to dismissial from the service. The president has taken no action as yet.

New York, July 21.—The legal representatives, both of Mrs. James Brown-Potter and Kyrle Bellew claim that there can be no foundation to the story from San Francisco, of their marriage at Hong Kong.

16. To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner, as may from time to time be determined, but not in the purchasing of or dealing in the shares of this Company.

17. To make, draw, accept, indorse, discount and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments.

24. To carry out the objects comprised in each paragraph of this clause in as full and ample a manner, and construed in as wide a sense as they would be construed if each paragraph of this clause defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company, and so that such objects shall not, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be restricted by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph.

25. To do all such other things as in fact are, or as the company shall consider to be, incidental or conducive to the above objects, or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, except where used in reference to this company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and wherever domiciled.

HE WAS NOT THE MAN.

An Ex-State Governor of Mexico Mistaken for Embezzler Hope.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 22.—The police of this city arrested a man whom they thought at first to be Wm. Hope, the defaulter, of Louisville, Kentucky, who decamped some time ago from Louisville with about $75,000 of the City Bank's money, which he embezzled in March, 1890, while he was teller. After the dispatches announcing Hope's arrest had been forwarded to Louisville, an investigation revealed the fact that the man who was arrested was no other that Governor Carlos R. Ortiza, who is at present a member of Congress from Sonora. He was mistaken for Hope. The authorities state that the resemblance between Hope's photo and the ex-Governor is remarkable, and this has caused the latter 16 hours' imprisonment. So far as is known, Hope is not and has not been here.

FROM DONALD AND GOLDEN

The Sports at Golden on the 11th Inst—A Jail Breaker.

GOLDEN, B.C., July 11, p.m.—The special train from Donald arrived with about 75 ladies and gentlemen to enjoy the sports. Most of the running and jumping was taken by the Calgary boys. The horse races laid in the Columbia Lakes boys hands. Putting the heavy stones, the wheelbarrow race, the obstacle race and the tug of war were won by Donaldites. The tug of war was between Golden and Donald.

One man, Simmons, was arrested and locked up. He broke out of his cell, destroyed the mining record books and poured coal oil on the mining receipt books, smashed the windows and the place generally.

After all the sports, 7 p.m., Captain Armstrong with his gallant little steamer Duchess, took about 100 people up the river. He had a flat scow along side, on which they danced, returned back to Golden at 9.30 p.m., the Golden people seeing the Donald people to the train, after singing God Save the Queen and giving three cheers.

DONALD, 13.—Constable Harold Redgrave, started out on a C.P.R. velocipede to scour the line for Simmons, who broke jail in Golden. He arrested him at Palliser, about 35 miles.

14th.—A. P. Cummin's S.M., committed Simmons to stand his trial at the next court.

19th—Rev. Sheldrick from Kamloops, held service at Donald. Lovely weather with light showers.

Vast Treasure Found in Brazil—Boxes of Diamonds and Gold.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Seventy million dollars in gold and $1,000,000 worth of gold dust, ornaments and precious stones is the comfortable find which a contractor of Rio Janerio, Brazil, is reported to have made. He was engaged in tearing down the old castle of San Antonio, and discovered this gold mine, where it had been hidden some time in the last century. El Carreo, published at Caracas, Venezuela, on July 1, gives a detailed report of this discovery, as follows:

Before it was converted into a castle San Antonio was a monastery under the control of the Jesuits. During this period the treasure is supposed to have been hidden under the castle vaults. In one of these a number or cases, chests and bundles were discovered. The contract for the demolition of the castle stipulated that in the event of the discovery of any precious metals half the treasure should belong to the state. The engineer promptly notified the Brazilian Government. His memo anda enumerated the following articles taken from the vaults: One hundred and twelve wooden boxes, with iron clasps, weighing 856 kilos each; four cast iron chests, weighing 615 kilos each; sixteen leather sacks sewed, weighing 39 kilos each; 806 packages of parchments, with a total weight of 1457 kilos. Three boxes containing papers of twenty-six packages were slightly damaged. An examination of the contents of these chests and packages resulted in a most astonishing fact. One hundred and twelve wooden cases contained gold and money to the value of $70,000,000 in the shape of old Portuguese cruzades (ancient mites, worth about 30 cents each) and the accounting of the treasure is verified by the documents found in the cases. Among the papers found was a receipt of Friar Decarte Anton, superior of the order of Jesuits, acknowledging the receipt of 20,000,000 cruzades in gold to be turned over to Don John V. as a tribute of honor upon his voyage to Brazil. These 20,000,000, together with 2,256 kilogrammes of gold powder contained in four iron chests and 945 kilos of gold bars, vessels and richly worked ornaments were to go to Portugal aboard the royal squadrons of caravels and galleons which, under the command of Don Sebastian, was to touch at Brazil on route to Lisbon. It is said when, in the last century, Marquis Pombat, the great Portuguese statesman, demanded the remittance of the above-named sum, Father Anton buried the treasure in the vaults of his monastery and denied that it had ever been in his possession, declaring it had been taken away during the previous reign. In consequence of this denial, which did not deceive the marquis, the Jesuits were expelled from Brazil and Portugal. The twenty-six packages found contain a variety of precious stones, whose value cannot be stated, as they have not yet been appraised. It is something enormous, however. The excavations about the castle have not yet been finished, and the discovery of new treasure is not impossible.

Men who are suffering from nervous debility, overwork, early indiscretions or any of the numerous causes that break down the system, should use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A certain blood builder and nerve restorer. They never fail. Try them. Sold by all dealers or post paid on receipt of price (50c. a box). Address Dr. Williams Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

Cooks that are interested in making bread and buns should use great caution in not using baking powders that are not authorized perfectly pure, as most of the indigestion, etc., is caused by acids used to make the bread white. All grocers selling Cooks' Friend Baking Powder are authorized to guarantee it pure in every respect. For sale at R. H. Jamieson's, 33 Fort street.

Bellingham Bay Mills Idle.

FAIRHAVEN, July 20.—The depression in the lumber business continues to be felt here as well as at other points on the Sound. The big Bellingham mill is still idle, and it is reported on good authority that the great Cornwall mill at Sehome, which has been running to its full capacity for several weeks, loading seven vessels, will close down in a few days, or as soon as the last of the vessels now there receives its cargo. The impression that many seem to have that the Bellingham mill is owned by the Fairhaven Land Company is erroneous. Half of it is owned by Hon. Edward Eldridge, of Whatcom, and Erastus Bartlett, of San Francisco, both of whom are old men, to whose wishes in regard to the mill Mr. Larrabee seems disposed to defer. He is ready to resume operations whenever they are.

Death of Senator Ross.

TALEQUAH, I.T., July 21.—Senator W. H. Ross died suddenly yesterday of heart disease at Fort Gibson. The senator was a half-breed, 68 years of age, and educated at Princetown. He held almost every office in the gift of the Cherokee nation, from chief down.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LERR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY

IMPORTANT LAND SALE.

Victoria Arm, Prospect Lake,

AND COMOX DISTRICT.

MONDAY, 27TH JULY, AT 11 A.M.

I have been instructed to sell at my salesrooms, Fort and Langley streets, Victoria:

VICTORIA ARM.

Ten one-acre blocks of land, situated between Victoria Arm and Colquitz River, all fronting on a 60-foot road that extends from the Arm Road to the river. Also a four-acre block on the east side of the Colquitz, one corner of which touches on the Burnside Road. This land lies between the properties of Messrs. Austin and Adams. All this property is on a gentle slope and nearly all clear. The soil is first rate. These blocks are most desirable residential properties, and the neighborhood is considered one of the prettiest spots in the suburbs of Victoria City, and is destined in a short period to be very valuable. It is well sheltered from the cold winds.

PROSPECT LAKE.

Sections 137 and 133, containing about 95 acres each. The latter section has considerable frontage on the lake and about 30 acres of good land is cleared and fenced. There is a good road to this property. About 30 acres more can be easily cleared. The first section has considerable good land that can be easily cleared. The property is about six miles from Victoria. There are no Black Tail Deer or Ptarmigan on it, but lots of other game and lake trout. Either piece would make a most pleasant and desirable home.

COMOX DISTRICT.

Section 7—Containing 103 acres, fronting on the Comox River, close to the Courtney town site, and three miles from the Comox wharf. This property was formerly owned by A. M. Stenhouse; ex-M.P.P.

Section 8—Newcastle District, containing 161 acres, fronting on Deep Bay. About 20 acres of this land has been cleared and cultivated. There is also a four-room house, barn and improvements. It lies about 10 miles south from the Union Mine wharf, and the Nanaimo road runs through it; also a good running stream.

Section 12—Containing 138 acres. Adjoining Section 8, and fronting on Deep Bay. Both these sections were formerly occupied by W. H. Grove.

Section 79—Comox District, containing 160 acres. About 20 acres have been cleared, and cabin and barn erected. It has a good stream of running water; is on a good road; about five miles from Comox wharf. This is good, level land and soil; a large portion is alder bottom. Was formerly owned by Joe Hodgins.

Section 119—Comox District. One hundred acres fronting on Comox River. This section adjoins 79. All flat river bottom land. A good deal of this land is alder bottom. This is one of the finest fishing frontages on the river.

TERMS OF SALE—25 per cent. cash; the balance in equal payments in one and two years, with interest at 6 per cent. per annum.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

Matters of Interest Going Forward in the Sporting World, Here and Elsewhere.

CYCLING.

A new departure amongst Swindon (Wilts, England,) cyclists was made by the members of the Swindon Ramblers Bicycle Club, on June 27, on the occasion of a paper chase on bicycles. A goodly number of club wheelmen and friends turned up at the meet, and after two hares had been selected and allowed 15 minutes law, the hounds were set to work. After several times overrunning the scent and retracing their steps, on one occasion down a muddy lane and across the railway track, they reached Plough Hill. Here considerable amusement was caused to the lucky few who had managed to get so far on the right scent, by a rare old Wiltshire rustic, who, on being questioned whether he had seen anything of the hares shook his head and replied, "I ain't seen 'um. Thee must be a fule if thee'st think I be going to split on 'um 'after they give I the price of half a pint." Another smart run brought them to Aldbourne, when unluckily it commenced to rain in torrents, the hares being on a large tract of land with no shelter, with a few of the hounds well up to them. Signals were made and it was decided to abandon the remainder of the chase for the day. After a rough ride in the pouring rain, the few who remained reached a good old country inn, where brandy, rough towels and plenty of soap were soon in considerable demand.

THE RING.

MUST ENFORCE THE LAW.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 22.—Sheriff Brean said this morning that he has no alternative but to prevent the Fitzsimmons-Hall fight from taking place in the city limits to-night. He says the Governor will cut off his head if he does not enforce the law. The offices of the Athletic Club insist on the contest taking place.

LACROSSE.

A lacrosse club is to be formed in Nanaimo this evening by a number of the younger residents.

NANAIMO NEWS.

Installation of Rebecca Lodge Officers—A New Block.

NANAIMO, July 22.—The Rebecca Lodge of I.O.O.F. was formed in this city last evening by Past Grand Master Waller, of Victoria. There was a large attendance and the proceedings were duly carried out with great enthusiasm. The following officers were installed: Mrs. G. Norris, Noble Grand; Mrs. Ramsey, Vice Grand; Miss Fulton, R. S.; Mrs. Gooley, F.S.; Mrs. Nord, Treasurer; Miss. Ferguson, Warden; Miss Kilpatrick, I.G.; Miss Fiddick, R.S.N.G.; Miss Bone, L.S.N.G.; Mrs. Whiteside, Conductor. After the installations had been completed, the whole party proceeded to the Central Hotel, where a grand supper was spread for them which was highly enjoyed. It is anticipated that the lodge will grow rapidly in the course of the next twelve months, and will become exceedingly strong.

WILL BE A FINE BUILDING.

The most energetic work proceeding in the city at the present time, is the erection of the new building for the P. E. Society, who are pushing the work forward as rapidly as possible, so that they will not have the rainy weather to contend with. The stone foundation is nearly completed and the large dressed stones which lie close to the work show that the building is to be a superb one. The site is one of the best in the city, and commands a prominent position on three streets, while it faces as many more. The society is showing a spirit of enterprise in undertaking the erection of a brick building of this description.

ANOTHER NEW BUSINESS.

Mr. E. W. Wiffin & Company are fitting up their building in an elaborate manner for the purpose of putting on show all kinds of merchandise. This firm intend taking a new departure in their business, by selling on commission and by auction to retail dealers.
